

Links to Resources for RCIA Participants

- The Bible in a Year with Fr. Mike Schmitz: (YouTube)
The Bible in a Year
- The complete Bible read by actor, David Suchet (Hercule Poirot, among other roles)
This is the New International Version, used by many Protestant denominations, so it is not an official Catholic version of the Scripture but he reads as a gifted storyteller.
The Complete Bible – NIV (YouTube)
- Parish subscription to FORMED, an online resource on the Catholic Faith:
FORMED – Parish Subscription Online Resource
- United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), an official and comprehensive resource of Church teachings, daily readings, news, and many resources.
USCCB Online - Website
- The Holy See, the official website of the Vatican, with papal documents, news, and exhaustive resources:
The Holy See – Vatican - Website
- Bishop Robert Barron, whose Word on Fire (DVD series) on Catholicism we have used in this class, has a widespread ministry with excellent presentation and weekly sermons: Word on Fire website
- Very popular and beautiful monthly publication with Mass readings, daily prayers, and meditations: Magnificat website
- Liturgy of the Hours - iBreviary: daily Mass readings, prayers for morning, afternoon, evening, night times- iBreviary